MISS BIGLY

A graded stakes winning and grade one placed performer from an outcross sire line, Miss Bigly is also half-sister to a grade one winner.

The extremely tough and durable Miss Bigly improved consistently throughout her career, and in her last nine starts, all in stakes events, she finished one-two-three on each occasion.

The highlight of this sequence was a daylight victory in the Bayakoa Stakes (G3), defeating grade one winner Queen Goddess and stakes winners She's All Wolfe, Jilted Bride, Coach, and Matera. Another stakes victory came in the Tranquility Lake Stakes.

Miss Bigly also took second in the Beholder Mile Stakes (G1), defeating grade one winner Varda and graded stakes winner Envoutante; second in the Santa Margarita Stakes (G2), beaten just a length by Blue Stripe, beating Varda and stakes winners Park Avenue and Sharapova; second in the Pippin Stakes, beating stakes winners W W Fitzzy, Breeze Ride, Wellington Wonder, and Josie; second in the Shawnee Stakes, beating grade one winners Paris Lights and La Renoleta; and second in the Lady Jacqueline Stakes, beating graded stakes winner Horologist and stakes winners Jilted Bride and Getridofwhatailesu.

In addition, Miss Bigly ran third in the Zenyatta Stakes (G2) ahead of stakes winners Lady Kate, Miss Stormy D, and Samurai Charm, and the Chilukki Stakes (G3), beating graded stakes winner Sally's Curlin and stakes winners Pass the Plate and She Can't Sing.

Miss Bigly is by Gemologist. A grade one winner by Tiznow – and therefore representing a sire line that is an outcross for most commercial stallions – Gemologist is himself sire of 21 stakes winners, including grade one winners Yellow Agate and La Buena Vida, and other graded winners Horologist and Theory.
