AWESOME FLOWER

Dam of one of the outstanding runners of 2022, Awesome Flower is offered carrying a Gun Runner foal that will be a full sibling to that horse.

Awesome Flower's current three-year-old is Cyberknife, a horse who has firmly established himself as one best of his generation. Successful in the $1,250,000 Arkansas Derby (G1) in the spring, Cyberknife then added victories in the Matt Winn Stakes (G3) and the $1,017,500 Haskell Stakes (G1), defeating the Santa Anita Derby (G1) victor Taiba and the brilliant Jack Christopher, who suffered the only defeat of his career in that event. Most recently Cyberknife took an excellent second in the Travers Stakes (G1), defeating Kentucky Derby (G1) winner Rich Strike, Preakness Stakes (G1) winner Early Voting, and grade one winner Zandon.

Cyberknife is one of two winners from the first three foals of Awesome Flower, herself a highly accomplished runner who won 11 races from 5½ to 8½ furlongs, earning $556,593, and capturing the Lady Canterbury Stakes twice, the Windward Stakes, the Wintergreen Stakes, and the Wayward Lass Stakes. She also earned places in seven other stakes, including the Sixty Sails Handicap (G3), Chilukki Stakes (G2), and Arlington Matron Stakes (G3).

Awesome Flower is by the Travers Stakes (G1) winner, Flower Alley, the sire of such as Kentucky Derby (G1) and Preakness Stakes (G1) winning Champion I'll Have Another; Champion Lukes Alley, and other grade one winners Princess Calla, Bullards Alley and Lilacs and Lace. A son of the wonderful broodmare sire Distorted Humor, Flower Alley is also shaping with great promise in that role, his daughters having already produced not only Cyberknife, but also other grade one winners Lucky Lilac and Smooth Like Strait.

Looking at the distaff side of her pedigree, Awesome Flower is half-sister to graded stakes placed First Mondays, to stakes placed If Not For Her, and to the dam of stakes winning and graded placed Monday Morning QB.
