BELL'S THE ONE

The remarkable Bell's The One is a grade one winner of almost $1,800,000 who captured stakes events every year from two to six.

This brilliant sprinter/miler scored ten of her 12 victories in black-type events. Her grade one credit was earned in the Derby City Distaff Stakes (G1), where she defeated the spectacular Serengeti Empress, with Champion Ce Ce, three-time grade one winner Bellafina, and graded winner Sally's Curlin behind, while running the seven furlongs in 1:21.07.

The Derby City Distaff was just one of five graded stakes victories achieved by Bell's The One. She also captured the Raven Run Stakes (G2), Thoroughbred Club of America Stakes (G2), Honorable Miss Stakes (G2) and Winning Colors Stakes (G3), which she took by three lengths, while defeating grade one winner Mia Mischief.

This wonderful mare gained further black-type successes in the Letellier Memorial Stakes, her third consecutive victory at two, and her stakes debut; the Allen Black Cat LaCombe Memorial Stakes, where she demonstrated her versatility scoring over a mile on turf; the Roxelana Stakes in a near track-record time for 6½ furlongs at Churchill Downs; the Dream Supreme Stakes; and on her twenty-sixth and most recent start, the Lady Tak Stakes.

Bell's The One has also earned places in eight other black-type events, six graded. Those efforts include two seconds in the Madison Stakes (G1), once beaten three-quarters of a length by Kimari, beating grade one winner Sanenus; and once beaten three-quarters of a length by Just One Time, while defeating Kimari and grade one winner Kalypso; a third in the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint (G1) to Gamine and Serengeti Empress; and a third in the Madison Stakes (G1) to Guarana and Mia Mischief.

Bell's The One is by the explosive grade one winning sprinter, Majesticperfection. A son of Harlan's Holiday – also sire of Into Mischief – Majesticperfection is sire of 21 stakes winners, also including the Kentucky Oaks (G1) heroine, Lovely Maria.
