BIPARTISANSHIP

Granddaughter of an English classic winner, Bipartisanship was group placed in Europe and was a stakes winner in North America.

As a three-year-old running against older mares, Bipartisanship gained group black-type with a third in the Brownstown Stakes (G3), ahead of group winner Marbling and stakes winners My Generation, Galtee Mist, and Thunder Beauty.

Racing in North America, Bipartisanship scored a 3³/₄ lengths victory in a maiden special weight, and took the Tropical Park Oaks, beating grade one winner Lady Speightspeare and stakes winners Inthewinnerscircle and Tobys Heart.

Bipartisanship is by Bated Breath, a leading son of outstanding sire and broodmare sire, Dansili. Bated Breath is already sire of 24 stakes winners, including North American grade one winner Viadera, and group winners Beckford, Daahyeh, Gift Lift, Space Traveller, and Worth Waiting.

The dam of Bipartisanship, Dream Wild, is a half-sister to Quiff, winner of the Yorkshire Oaks (G1), and second against colts in the English classic, St. Leger (G1), and to group placed Total Command and Arabian Gulf.

Dream Wild is out of Wince, heroine of the English classic 1,000 Guineas (G1), and a half-sister to stakes winner Ulundi, and to group one placed Fleeting Glimpse, the dam of group winner Half Glance (by Bipartisanship's grandsire, Danehill) and of twice classic placed Tycoon.

Wince is out of Flit, a daughter of Nimble Folly. She is also dam of Flit's graded stakes winning sister, Skimble, the dam of two-time Pacific Classic (G1) winner Skimming, and Flit's three-quarters sister, grade one winner Contredance. Nimble Folly is ancestress of 30 other stakes winners, 15 graded, including grade one winners Pryka and Marketing Mix. This is a branch of the great
