SHEZA SMOKE SHOW

Sheza Smoke Show is a graded winner who is also dam of the brilliant grade one winning two-year-old Princess Noor. She is offered carrying a foal by Tapit, three-time Leading Sire and represented in 2022 by the spectacular Flightline.

Sheza Smoke Show is dam of three multiple winners with her first three starters. They are headed by Princess Noor, a juvenile sensation who captured her first three starts by a total of nearly 20 lengths. Those wins included the Del Mar Debutante Stakes (G1), which she took by 6½ lengths, and the Chandelier Stakes (G2), where she dominated to score by 8¼ lengths from subsequent grade one winner Varda, also beating multiple stakes winner Miss Mischief.

Sheza Smoke Show was an accomplished runner in her own right, winning three times at Santa Anita, including the Senorita Stakes (G3) where she scored by daylight.

By Awesome Again's Breeders' Cup Juvenile (G1) winner Wilko, Sheza Smoke Show is out of Avery Hall, winner of the Open Mind Handicap and four times stakes placed. Avery Hall is out of Dynaformer's stakes winning daughter Royal Form, and her granddam, Royal Troupe, is a stakes placed half-sister to Dance Floor, winner of the Fountain of Youth Stakes (G2), Breeders' Futurity (G2), and Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes (G3), and placed in four grade one events, including the Kentucky Derby (G1). Royal Troupe is also half-sister to Sinsie, the granddam of stakes winner Two Horn Unicorn, and is out of four-time stakes winner Daystar.

In addition to her three winners, Sheza Smoke Show is dam of a two-year-old filly by Tapwrit, A Ula Princess, and has a yearling colt by grade one sire Protonico – a three-quarters brother to Princess Noor – and is bred to Tapit, giving the cross of Tapit with mares by Awesome Again and his sons, which has produced graded stakes winners Bellavais and Mrs. Danvers.
